Local Notes.

Lay in your coal.
Winter is close at hand.
Put the urchins in school Monday.
The small boys' troubles begin Monday.
Don't forget the Rigney sale, Saturday.
Watermelons are still plentiful and very cheap.
The blind tigers have fared hard this term of court.
Start the kids to school Monday and keep 'em off the streets.
Another $1.50 excursion to Cincinnati Sunday. Only a few more will be run.
The doves have been about killed out, the few remaining being as wild as deers.
The present petit jury is made up of men who are determined to punish evil doers. All honor to them.

Read the advertisement of the Jno.
D. Harris sale in this issue. Don't forget the dates.

Mr Ware McRoberts is collecting for The Record. If your label does not read 06, you are in arrears. Please settle with him.

Dr James Lapsley filled the pulpit at the Presbyterian church Sunday.
The members are endeavoring to secure a minister to preach regularly.

We are under many obligations to those who have paid their subscriptions this week. As we are still crippled, the cash filled many "long-felt wants."

If President Roosevelt desires to become the hero in this neck o' the woods, he will quit dallying with the Japs and Russians and help solve the servant problem.

Remember the sale of household and kitchen furniture at late residence of Mrs Paulina Rigney. It takes place at 2 o'clock, Saturday. Some good articles to be sold.

Enforce the Vagrant Law now, and weed out the culprits who steal the fencing, garden truck, etc. Work on them before winter sets in and the people will not be called upon to feed so many this winter.

A big crowd attended court Monday.
There were no cattle sales of note, but the mule trade was brisk. Quite a number of mule colts sold at from $35 to $65, aged mules bringing from $90 to $140. There was no disorder of any kind.

Capt. Jules Herrick and Capt Frank Webb are now punching tickets on the passenger trains, as Capt. Grove has resigned. The many friends of Capt.
Grove are sorry he has given up the run, as he was one of the most popular men on the K. C.

Sale, the Fourteenth.
Mr J A Rice, who has been farming two miles south of Marksbury, has purchased the interest of Wallace Withers in the Lexington Paper Co., and will move to that city. He is one of Garrard's most popular young men, and we wish him all success in his new venture. He will have a sale of his stock, crops, etc., on Thursday, the fourteenth, and rent his farm of 200 acres of fine land.

School Opens Monday.
The Graded Schools opens Monday, and everything has been put in perfect order for the reception of the scholars. The attendance has been increasing each year, but the trustees have been equal to the emergency and comfortable quarters and sufficient teachers have been supplied. Parents should remember that it is very important that all pupils come the first week, and have the urchins in place on Monday. Delay causes much confusion. The school has the best corps of teachers it has ever had, and a good year's work is expected.

Meets in Nicholasville.
To-morrow, Friday, the Eighth District Press League will meet in Nicholasville, at which time by-laws, etc., will be framed and other matters of importance to Central Kentucky newspaper men will be attended to. Nearly every paper in the district is a member, and the organization will bring about much good for the publishers and enable them to improve papers and give their patrons better service.
The Record is a member and will be represented at the meeting. This League is an auxiliary to the Kentucky Press Association.

Tobacco Growers.
Judge John W Hughes, of Mercer, addressed a large crowd of farmers at the Court House Monday afternoon in the interest of the tobacco raisers, and his remarks were not only instructive but highly appreciated by our citizens. He showed how much good had been and would be accomplished by the raisers uniting and standing together, and that by so doing they could and would get a decent price for their crops and it would pay the farmers to raise tobacco. Garrard is one of the leading tobacco producing counties in the state, and, if our farmers will only stand together, work together, they will bring about a wonderful change for the better.

Right Kind of Growth.

Danville now has a splendid electric light plant. By the way, we know of no town in Kentucky enjoying a greater or more steady growth than is our neighbor, and the good feature is that it is the kind of growth to do good, to benefit the town, in other words a growth that has come to stay. A "boom" or mush room growth is a great calamity for a town. Its the steady growth that counts.

Married in Danville.

Miss Ann Hill, one of Lancaster's most attractive young ladies, was married in Danville Tuesday to Mr Morris Dudley of Lexington. None of the many friends of the bride knew of her intention, and the wedding was a great surprise. She is a very popular young lady who has a legion of friends who wish her all joy and happiness.
The groom is engaged in business in Lexington, and is to be congratulated upon winning so noble a girl as his bride. She is a daughter of Mr Jas Hill, of this city.

Death of Former Citizen.

News of the death of Ambrose Buford, which occurred at Covington, was telegraphed Lancaster friends Saturday, and the remains reached this city Monday and were interred in the Lancaster Cemetery that afternoon. Mr Buford was born in Garrard county and resided here most of his life, removing to Covington some years ago. He was well advanced in years and had been in poor health for a long time. He belonged to one of Garrard county's pioneer families and had many relatives here. Older citizens who knew him well speak of him in the highest terms both as a Christian and a citizen. He was a member of the Christian church, a true friend and a useful man, who will be missed by his family and wide circle of friends.

Evans.

Danville News:—After suffering for quite a while life passed out of George W. Evans Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs J H Hutchings on the Lancaster pike. The deceased was in the seven-eighth year of age. He was born in Pulaski county, but later moved to Crab Orchard, where he lived until his death. He was well and favorably known throughout this section. Was an upright citizen, kind husband and loving father. He was a life-long member of the Baptist church. He leaves to mourn his departure, beside a host of good friends, three children, Messrs. Henry and George, of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. J. H. Hutchings, of this county, all of whom have the tenderest sympathy of this community in their bereavement. The funeral services were conducted this morning at the home of Mrs. Hutchings at 10 o'clock, after which the interment followed in the Lancaster cemetery.
Mr. Evans was an uncle of Mr J. E.
Stormes, of this city.

A Fine Opportunity.

The trend of emigration to the great Southwest is rapidly growing.
The vast and undeveloped resources of this country makes it an ideal habitation of man. It offers fine opportunities for inventors and men of small means. There the poor man has a chance with the rich. Indian Territory is the most beautiful country of the entire Southwest. Fine farming country, good timber lands and vast mineral resources, such as iron, coal, oil, etc. Near Paden, in the Creek Nation and located on the Fort Smith & Western R. R., there is a mountain of iron ore near the town. The natural oil also comes up out of the ground and a company has been organized to bore for it. Paden is already a town of 300 inhabitants, wide awake and up to date. Lots have never sold for less than $50 and as high as $250. But you can now buy lots for a few days at the low price of $40 each. Mr Frank Leslie Russell, General Agent, Richmond Ky., will furnish any desired information. He will visit Lancaster in a few days and offer our people a fine opportunity for investment.

Colored Fair A Success.

The colored people have never had a more successful or enjoyable fair than was the one held last week. The order was perfect, the crowds large and, except a slight rain on the first two days, the weather was fine. The show of stock was not only good but the rings were well filled, there being eight to ten entries in most of the rings. There was no dissatisfaction with decisions, the judges being perfectly fair in each ring. The management was perfect, as is proven by the fact that by half-past nine o'clock Saturday night the bills were all in, every creditor had been paid and the books balanced, something never done before, even by the management of the white fairs held in Kentucky.
This was due to the good work by the officers. Wm Jones, of Stanford, was president, Alex Miller, of Lancaster, vice president, W T Logan, of Stanford, treasurer, Wm H Harris, of Lancaster, secretary, George Moran, Lancaster, director. The secretary kept his work right up with each ring shown, consequently the business was wound up promptly and without the slightest hitch. It was a success in every way, and The Record congratulates the colored people on their enterprise, energy and good management.

PREACHERSVILLE.

J H Thompson bought 40 90 lb. hogs at 54c.

J P Ballard sold 22 120 lb hogs to W B Bennett, for 6c.

J L Hutchins bought a fat cow from James Hays for $17.50.

Faulkner Kennedy sold a horse to Ben Kennedy for $100.

Miss Beulah Jordan was visiting Mrs Phillips last week.

Mrs Jones and daughter, of Louisville, is visiting Mr and Mrs Geo King.

Mr P Faulkner Kennedy and wife, has returned home from Mobile, Alabama.

Miss Eliza Anderson, of Maysville, is visiting relatives here for a few days.

J B Hutchins and Frank Grose, bought 3 mules at London, last week for $325.

Mr Dave Luneford, of Paint Lick, and Mr Arthur Luneford, were with home folks here last week.

Mr Henry Blankenship has been in very poor health for some time, tho' is some better at this writing.

Mrs Victoria Anderson and Mrs Smiley Walker were visiting Mr and Mrs Geo A Brown' Thursday.

Mr Eugene Sutton, of Indianapolis, who has been visiting friends here for a few days has returned home.

Mrs H C Cummins, J W Cummins and Mrs Mary Elmore and Miss Adda Cummins were visiting in Stanford last week.

Mrs A D Edmiston and daughter, Miss Lillie, who have been visiting at Mr W H Cummins' have returned to their home in Louisville.

Mr Lesley Harber was visiting his sister, Mrs J H Thompson last week, and they are talking of visiting their father, Mr S W Harber, in Lexington soon.

Mr J M Cress who had a little difficulty with a Mr Adams, last week, near Brodhead, is one of our very best citizens, and one who has the backing of this entire community.

The death angel visited the home of Mr and Mrs Levy Bell last Friday night and claimed as his own, their seven month's old babe, and bore him away to his heavenly home. May the good Lord comfort the sorrowing ones.

In the death of Mr Geo W Evans, we have lost one of our best citizens.
He was a member of the Baptist church, and lived a consistent Christian life. The family have our kindest sympathy. He was buried at Lancaster.

BEUNA VISTA.

Little Ethel Ruble remains critically ill.

Little George Naylor is a victim of fever.

Ben Lane has been suffering intensly with a carbuncle.

W P Ruble shipped a car load of hogs to Cincinnati, Saturday.

Miss Almira Lane returned last week from a visit to Louisville.

Virgil Scott and wife will be among the visitors at Nicholasville Fair.

John Ruble has rented the farm of Mrs Mort Scott, and will move soon.

Miss Waddell King will leave next week for school at Bellview College.

Mr J F Ruble, who went to Burgin for treatment has returned improved.

Mrs Annie Walton, of Louisville, is the guest of her mother, Mrs Amanda Lane.

and Miss Edna Lane, of Danville, were with relatives here last week.

Mr James Colton, of Fordwick, Va., who has been the guest of W T King's family, left for his home Tuesday.

Miss Virginia King and cousin, Mrs Colton, of Virginia, will visit friends near Nicholasville, and attend the Fair.

Mr Alvin Overstreet and family, of Jesseamine county, attended church here Sunday; and dined with Mrs Sarah Spoonamore.

Mr Geo Robinson and wife, of Polo, Mo., who have been visiting Mrs Margaret Robinson and other relatives, leave this week for their Western home.

James Spoonamore, who recently married in Illinois, has returned with his bride. They will live in Bryants-ville, where Mr Spoonamore will be salesman for A T Scott.

Circuit Court.

Judge Bell didn't hold court last Monday on account of county court, but he has been busy since last issue in the trial of civil cases. The case of Joseph Burnside against the Home Insurance Company consumed Saturday and Tuesday and resulted in a verdict for $1,500 in favor of plaintiff.
Hon W O Bradley appeared for the company and W I Williams for the plaintiff.

To this time the grand jury has returned ten indictments, mostly misdemeanors, there being one against Stewart Hummer, colored, for murder.
Several important civil cases are yet to be heard and some commonwealth cases have been passed until next week.
The court will be busy for the entire term of three weeks.

A Serious Problem.

The servant problem grows more serious every day, and fortunate, in deed, is the family who can secure good, reliable help. It is almost impossible to get a cook, and when one is secured she is so rotten independent or impudent that she has to be booted out the back door. We heard a lady suggest that several families unite and import a number of white women, but this has been tried in other towns and is a failure. Another housewife suggested that the kitchens be closed and families take their meals at a first class hotel or boarding house. As winter is at hand, it appears that the last named plan is about the only thing left to do, and quite a number of our people will do this during the cold weather. It is certainly inconvenient, and is much trouble for the ladies to dress three times a day, but it seems the only way out of the trouble. If the courts would enforce the vagrant law, and take up every woman who does not work, fine them and then see that the fine was paid or worked out, it would help matters considerably, but when a vagrant is arrested, some jack-leg lawyer is on hand to fight the case, and with questionable witnesses clear the party. This trouble exists all over the state, and Lancaster housewives are not alone in the annoyance.

NOTICE TO TAXPAYERS.

State and county taxes are due. You will save expense by settling NOW.

W. L. Lawson, S. G. C.

The man with a mission never lacks for hearers.

The bravest men are those who are afraid to do wrong.

If it is really worth saying it is not always necessary to shout it.
The sermon that fail to hit you is one that does you little good.
